John Hancock
Rainier Growth Fund

SUBADVISED BY RAINIER INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT, INC.

Goal: Seeks long-term capital appreciation.

Strategy: The Fund seeks to maximize long-term capital appreciation. Under normal market conditions, the Fund invests at least 80% of its net assets in the common stock of large-capitalization growth companies traded in the U.S. and affords shareholders the opportunity to invest in some of the fastest-growing companies in the U.S. The term "growth company" denotes companies with the prospect of strong earnings, revenue or cash flow growth.

On 4/25/08, John Hancock Rainier Growth Fund acquired the assets of the Rainier Large Cap Growth Equity Portfolio (predecessor fund). Performance prior to 4/28/08 reflects the performance of the Fund's predecessor.

The Fund's total annual operating expense ratio as of the current prospectus is 1.28%. Expenses for other share classes will vary, which will affect returns. Performance figures assume that all distributions are reinvested. Performance quoted without sales charges would be reduced if the sales charges were applied.

For performance data current to the most recent month end, contact your financial professional or call John Hancock Funds at 1-800-225-5291. The performance data contained within this material represents past performance, which does not guarantee future results. The return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate, so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost. The Fund's current performance may be higher or lower and is subject to substantial changes.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW BEFORE INVESTING

Growth stocks may be subject to greater price fluctuations because their prices tend to place more emphasis on earnings expectations. Foreign investing, especially in emerging markets, has additional risks, such as currency and market volatility and political and social instability. Large company stocks as a group could fall out of favor with the market, causing the Fund to underperform. Hedging and other strategic transactions may increase volatility of a fund and, if the transaction is not successful, could result in a significant loss. For additional information on these and other risk considerations, please see the Fund's prospectus.

A fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses should be considered carefully before investing. The prospectus contains this and other important information about the Fund. To obtain a prospectus, contact your financial professional, call John Hancock Funds at 1-800-225-5291 or visit our Web site at www.jhfunds.com. Please read the prospectus carefully before investing or sending money.

5 Listed holdings do not represent all of the holdings in the Fund. Holdings are subject to change at any time and are not recommendations to buy or sell any security. Characteristics are expressed as a percentage of net assets and exclude cash and cash equivalents.
6 The portfolio turnover is from the Fund's most current annual report and is subject to change. Please see the annual report for further details regarding the turnover ratio.
7 Source: Morningstar, Inc. Beta is the market risk of the Fund's Class A shares and is based on 3-year performance as of 12/31/11. By definition, the beta of the market (as represented by the stated benchmark) is 1.00. Accordingly, a fund with a 1.10 beta is theoretically expected to have 10% more volatility than the market.
8 Source: Morningstar, Inc. Based on Class A shares at NAV for the 3-year period as of 12/31/11. Standard deviation measures performance fluctuation — generally, the higher the standard deviation, the greater the expected volatility of returns. These measures of past risk are not completely or necessarily representative of future risk and cannot predict a fund's performance.
