John Hancock Income Securities Trust

Ticker Symbol: JHS

A John Hancock Closed-End Fund

Q4 | 2011

Goal: Seeks a high level of current income consistent with prudent investment risk.

Strategy: Invests at least 80% of its net assets in income securities, which includes a diversified portfolio of corporate and government bonds. In choosing bonds for the portfolio, the Fund's management team evaluates the full spectrum of bonds in the marketplace and diversifies across a number of industries. It is contemplated that the Fund may invest up to 25% of the value of its total assets in debt securities that have, at the time of purchase, a rating below investment grade by Moody's and Standard & Poor's.

- Listed holdings do not represent all of the holdings in the Fund. Holdings are subject to change at any time and are not recommendations to buy or sell any security. Characteristics are expressed as a percentage of net assets and exclude cash and cash equivalents.
- Ratings are from Moody's Investors Services, Inc. If not available, we have used S&P ratings. In the absence of ratings from these agencies, we have used Fitch, Inc. ratings. "Not Rated" securities are those with no Moody's, S&P or Fitch ratings available. Composition is as of date indicated and does not reflect subsequent downgrades. Short-Term Investments & Other may include fund receivables, payables and certain derivative instruments. This data is provided for informational purposes only. For specific strategies and policies of the Fund, please see the prospectus and SAL.
- Closed-end fund shares are not redeemable, but instead are traded in the secondary market and frequently trade at a discount to net asset value. Specialized funds may carry additional risks.
- The difference between total managed assets and total net assets, if any, is due primarily to the Fund's use of borrowings and other liabilities; net assets do not include borrowings.
- As of October 31, 2011, annual report.
