John Hancock Money Market Fund

CLASS A, CLASS B AND CLASS C SHARES

Prospectus

8.1.2007

John Hancock Funds Complex

Supplement dated December 17, 2007 to the Class A, B and C Shares Prospectus

Under the heading "Additional payments to financial intermediaries," the following additional language has been added:

Rollover Program Compensation

The broker-dealer of record for a pension, profit-sharing or other plan qualified under Section 401(a) or described in Section 457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which is funded by certain group annuity contracts issued by John Hancock insurance companies, is eligible to receive ongoing compensation ("Rollover Compensation") when a plan participant terminates from the qualified plan and rolls over assets into a John Hancock sponsored custodial IRA or a John Hancock custodial ROTH IRA invested in shares of John Hancock funds. The Rollover Compensation is paid from a fund's 12b-1 fees to the plan's broker-dealer of record at an annual rate not expected to exceed 0.25% of the average daily net eligible assets held in John Hancock funds [0.15% for the John Hancock Money Market Fund] under the rollover program. Rollover Compensation is made in the first year and continues thereafter, monthly in arrears. A John Hancock insurance company may also pay the third-party administrator for the plan a one-time nominal fee not expected to exceed $25 per each participant rollover into a John Hancock fund for facilitating the transaction.

John Hancock Funds Complex

Supplement dated December 17, 2007, to the Prospectus

Under the heading "Transaction Policies," under the subheading "Limitation on exchange activity," the first paragraph is amended and restated as follows:

Pursuant to the policies and procedures adopted by the Board of Trustees, the fund, or its agent, may reject or cancel a purchase order, suspend or terminate the exchange privilege or terminate the ability of an investor to invest in John Hancock funds, if the fund, or its agent, determines that a proposed transaction involves market timing or disruptive trading that it believes is likely to be detrimental to the fund. The fund, or its agent, cannot ensure that it will be able to identify all cases of market timing or disruptive trading, although it attempts to have adequate procedures in place to do so. The fund, or its agent, may also reject or cancel any purchase order (including an exchange) from an investor or group of investors for any other reason. Decisions to reject or cancel purchase orders (including exchanges) in the fund are inherently subjective and will be made in a manner believed to be in the best interest of the fund's shareholders. The fund does not have any arrangement to permit market timing or disruptive trading.

Under the heading "Transaction Policies," under the subheading "Limitation on the ability to detect and curtail excessive trading practices," the first paragraph is amended and restated as follows:

Shareholders seeking to engage in excessive trading practices sometimes deploy a variety of strategies to avoid detection and, despite the efforts of the fund to prevent its excessive trading, there is no guarantee that the fund or its agents will be able to identify such shareholders or curtail its trading practices. The ability of the fund and its agents to detect and curtail excessive trading practices may also be limited by operational systems and technological limitations. Because the fund will not always be able to detect frequent trading activity, investors should not assume that the fund will be able to detect or prevent all frequent trading or other practices that disadvantage the fund. For example, the ability of the fund to monitor trades that are placed by omnibus or other nominee accounts is limited in those instances in which the financial intermediary, including a financial adviser, broker, retirement plan administrator or fee-based program sponsor, maintains the records of the fund's underlying beneficial owners. Omnibus or other nominee account arrangements are common forms of holding shares of the fund, particularly among certain financial intermediaries such as financial advisers, brokers, retirement plan administrators or fee-based program sponsors. These arrangements often permit the financial intermediary to aggregate its clients' transactions and ownership positions and do not identify the particular underlying shareholder(s) to the fund. However, the fund will work with financial intermediaries as necessary to discourage shareholders from engaging in abusive trading practices and to impose restrictions on excessive trades. In this regard, the fund has entered into information sharing agreements with financial intermediaries pursuant to which these intermediaries are required to provide to the fund, at the fund's request, certain information relating to their customers investing in the fund through omnibus or other nominee accounts. The fund will use this information to attempt to identify excessive trading practices. Financial intermediaries are contractually required to follow any instructions from the fund to restrict or prohibit future purchases from shareholders that are found to have engaged in excessive trading in violation of the fund's policies. The fund cannot guarantee the accuracy of the information provided to it from financial intermediaries and so cannot ensure that it will be able to detect abusive trading practices that occur through omnibus or other nominee accounts. As a consequence, the fund's ability to monitor and discourage excessive trading practices in these types of accounts may be limited.

BACK COVER

Money Market Fund

GOAL AND STRATEGY

The fund seeks the maximum current income that is consistent with maintaining liquidity and preserving capital. The fund intends to maintain a stable $1 share price.

The fund invests only in U.S.-dollar-denominated securities rated within the two highest short-term credit categories and their unrated equivalents. These securities may be issued by:

- U.S. and foreign companies;
- U.S. and foreign banks;
- U.S. and foreign governments;
- U.S. agencies, states and municipalities;
- International organizations such as the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund.

The fund may also invest in repurchase agreements based on these securities.

The fund maintains an average dollar-weighted maturity of 90 days or less and does not invest in securities with remaining maturities of more than 13 months.

In managing the portfolio, the management team searches aggressively for the best values on securities that meet the fund's credit and maturity requirements. The team tends to favor corporate securities and looks for relative yield advantages between, for example, a company's secured and unsecured short-term debt obligations.

PAST PERFORMANCE

The graph shows how the fund's calendar year total return has varied from year to year, while the table shows performance over time. This information may help provide an indication of the fund's risks. The average annual figures reflect sales charges; the year-by-year figures do not and would be lower if they did. The average annual total returns for Class C have been adjusted to reflect the elimination of the front-end sales charge effective July 15, 2004. All figures assume dividend reinvestment. Past performance does not indicate future results.

Class C – began 5-1-98	2.41%	1.10%	N/A	2.13%

MAIN RISKS

The value of your investment will be most affected by short-term interest rates. If interest rates rise sharply, the fund could underperform its peers or lose money.

An issuer of securities held by the fund could default or have its credit rating downgraded.

Foreign investments carry additional risks, including inadequate or inaccurate financial information and social or political instability.

An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in the fund.

YOUR EXPENSES

Transaction expenses are charged directly to your account. Operating expenses are paid from the fund's assets and, therefore, are paid by shareholders indirectly.

Maximum deferred sales charge (load) as a % of purchase or sale price, whichever is less	none	5.00%	1.00%

The hypothetical example below shows what your expenses would be after the expense reduction (first year only) if you invested $10,000 over the time frames indicated, assuming you reinvested all distributions and that the average annual return was 5%. The example is for comparison only and does not represent the fund's actual expenses and returns, either past or future.

¹ A $4.00 fee will be charged for wire redemptions.

² Reflects adviser's contractual agreement to limit maximum rate of management fee to 0.40% and distributor's contractual agreement to limit 12b-1 fee on Class A shares to 0.15% until at least 7-31-08.

CHOOSING A SHARE CLASS

Each share class has its own cost structure, including a Rule 12b-1 plan that allows it to pay fees for the sale, distribution and service of its shares. Your financial representative can help you decide which share class is best for you.

Class A

- No sales charges
- Distribution and service (12b-1) fees of 0.15%

Class B — for Money Market Fund only

- No front-end sales charge; all your money goes to work for you right away.
- Distribution and service (12b-1) fees of 1.00%
- A deferred sales charge, as described in the section HOW SALES CHARGES ARE CALCULATED
- Automatic conversion to Class A shares after eight years, thus reducing future annual expenses

Class C — for Money Market Fund only

- No front-end sales charge; all your money goes to work for you right away
- Distribution and service (12b-1) fees of 1.00%
- A 1.00% contingent deferred sales charge on shares sold within one year of purchase
- No automatic conversion to Class A shares, so annual expenses continue at the Class C level throughout the life of your investment

The maximum amount you may invest in Class B shares with any single purchase request is $99,999 and the maximum amount you may invest in Class C shares with any single purchase is $999,999. Signature Services may accept a purchase request for Class B shares for $100,000 or more or for Class C shares for $1,000,000 or more when the purchase is pursuant to the Reinstatement Privilege (see SALES CHARGE REDUCTIONS AND WAIVERS).

For actual past expenses of each share class, see the previous page.

Because 12b-1 fees are paid on an ongoing basis, they will increase the cost of your investment and may cost shareholders more than other types of sales charges.

Your broker-dealer or agent may charge you a fee to effect transactions in fund shares.

Additional payments to financial intermediaries

Shares of the fund are primarily sold through financial intermediaries (firms), such as brokers, banks, registered investment advisers, financial planners and retirement plan administrators. These firms may be compensated for selling shares of the fund in two principal ways:

- directly, by the payment of sales commissions, if any; and
- indirectly, as a result of the fund paying Rule 12b-1 fees.

Certain firms may request, and the distributor may agree to make, payments in addition to sales commissions and 12b-1 fees out of the distributor's own resources. These additional payments are sometimes referred to as "revenue sharing." These payments assist in our efforts to promote the sale of the fund's shares. The distributor agrees with the firm on the methods for calculating any additional compensation, which may include the level of sales or assets attributable to the firm. Not all firms receive additional compensation and the amount of compensation varies. These payments could be significant to a firm. The distributor determines which firms to support and the extent of the payments it is willing to make. The distributor generally chooses to compensate firms that have a strong capability to distribute shares of the fund and that are willing to cooperate with the distributor's promotional efforts.

The distributor hopes to benefit from revenue sharing by increasing the fund's net assets, which, as well as benefiting the fund, would result in additional management and other fees for the investment adviser and its affiliates. In consideration for revenue sharing, a firm may feature certain funds in its sales system or give preferential access to members of its sales force or management. In addition, the firm may agree to participate in the distributor's marketing efforts by allowing us to participate in conferences, seminars or other programs attended by the intermediary's sales force. Although an intermediary may seek revenue sharing payments to offset costs incurred by the firm in servicing its clients that have invested in the fund, the intermediary may earn a profit on these payments. Revenue sharing payments may provide your firm with an incentive to favor the fund.

The SAI discusses the distributor's revenue sharing arrangements in more detail. Your intermediary may charge you additional fees other than those disclosed in this prospectus. You can ask your firm about any payments it receives from the distributor or the fund, as well as about fees and/or commissions it charges.

The distributor, investment adviser and their affiliates may have other relationships with your firm relating to the provisions of services to the fund, such as providing omnibus account services, transaction processing services or effecting portfolio transactions for the fund. If your intermediary provides these services, the investment adviser or the fund may compensate the intermediary for these services. In addition, your intermediary may have other compensated relationships with the investment adviser or its affiliates that are not related to the fund.

HOW SALES CHARGES ARE CALCULATED

Class B and Class C Money Market Fund shares may be charged a contingent deferred sales charge (CDSC) on Class B or Class C shares, if a commission has been paid and the shares are sold within a certain time after you bought them, as described in the tables below. There is no CDSC on shares acquired through reinvestment of dividends. The CDSC is based on the original purchase cost or the current market value of the shares being sold, whichever is less. The CDSCs are as follows:

Money Market Fund Class B deferred charges

Years after purchase	CDSC on shares being sold
1 st year	5.00%
2 nd year	4.00%
3 rd or 4 th year	3.00%
5 th year	2.00%
6 th year	1.00%
After 6 th year	none

Money Market Fund Class C deferred charges

Years after purchase	CDSC on shares being sold
1 st year	1.00%
After 1 st year	none

For purposes of these CDSCs, all purchases made during a calendar month are counted as having been made on the first day of that month.

To keep your CDSC as low as possible, each time you place a request to sell shares we will first sell any shares in your account that carry no CDSC. If there are not enough of these to meet your request, we will sell those shares that have the lowest CDSC.

SALES CHARGE REDUCTIONS AND WAIVERS

Group Investment Program A group may be treated as a single purchaser under the accumulation and combination privileges. Each investor has an individual account, but the group's investments are lumped together for sales charge purposes, making the investors potentially eligible for reduced sales charges. There is no charge or obligation to invest (although initial investments must satisfy minimum initial investment requirements specified in the section OPENING AN ACCOUNT) and individual investors may close their accounts at any time.

To utilize this program you must: Contact your financial representative or Signature Services to find out how to qualify. Consult the SAI for additional details (see the back cover of this prospectus).

CDSC waivers As long as Signature Services is notified at the time you sell, the CDSC for Money Market Fund Class B and Class C shares will generally be waived in the following cases:

- to make payments through certain systematic withdrawal plans
- certain retirement plans participating in Merrill Lynch, The Princeton Retirement Group, Inc., or PruSolutionsSM programs
- redemptions pursuant to the fund's right to liquidate an account less than $1,000
- to make certain distributions from a retirement plan
- because of shareholder death or disability

To utilize this waiver you must: Contact your financial representative or Signature Services. Consult the SAI for additional details (see the back cover of this prospectus).

Reinstatement privilege If you sell shares of a John Hancock fund, you may reinvest some or all of the proceeds back into the same share class of the same John Hancock fund and account from which it was removed, within 120 days without a sales charge, as long as Signature Services or your financial representative is notified before you reinvest. If you paid a CDSC when you sold your shares, you will be credited with the amount of the CDSC.

To utilize this privilege you must: Contact your financial representative or Signature Services.

TRANSACTION POLICIES

Valuation of shares The net asset value (NAV) per share for the fund and class is determined twice each business day at 12:00 P.M., (noon) and at the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (typically 4:00 P.M., Eastern Time) by dividing a class's net assets by the number of its shares outstanding. To help the fund maintain its $1 constant share price, portfolio investments are valued at cost, and any discount or premium created by market movements is amortized to maturity.

Buy and sell prices When you buy shares, you pay the NAV plus any applicable sales charges, as described earlier. When you sell shares, you receive the NAV minus any applicable deferred sales charges.

Execution of requests The fund is open on those days when the New York Stock Exchange is open, typically Monday through Friday. Buy and sell requests are executed at the next NAV to be calculated (normally $1) after Signature Services receives your request in good order. In unusual circumstances, the fund has the right to redeem in kind.

At times of peak activity, it may be difficult to place requests by phone. During these times, consider using EASI-Line, accessing www.jhfunds.com or sending your request in writing.

In unusual circumstances, any fund may temporarily suspend the processing of sell requests or may postpone payment of proceeds for up to three business days or longer, as allowed by federal securities laws.

Telephone transactions For your protection, telephone requests may be recorded in order to verify their accuracy. Also for your protection, telephone redemption transactions are not permitted on accounts whose names or addresses have changed within the past 30 days. Proceeds from telephone transactions can only be mailed to the address of record.

Exchanges You may exchange shares of one John Hancock fund for shares of the same class of any other, generally without paying any additional sales charge. The registration for both accounts involved must be identical. If no sales charge was paid on Class A shares, you will pay the sales charge imposed by the new fund. Otherwise, your Class A shares will be exchanged without a sales charge.

Class B and Class C shares will continue to age from the original date and will retain the same CDSC rate. A CDSC rate that has increased will drop again with a future exchange into a fund with a lower rate. A fund may change or cancel its exchange policies at any time upon 60 days' written notice to its shareholders. For further details, see "Additional Services and Programs" in the SAI (see the back cover of this prospectus).

Excessive trading Excessive trading by the fund's shareholders can negatively impact the fund and its long-term shareholders by increasing expenses or lowering returns. However, money market funds are typically utilized by investors for short-term investments, often in place of bank checking or savings accounts or for cash management purposes. Investors in money market funds value the ability to add and withdraw their funds quickly and without restrictions. Moreover, because all money market funds seek to maintain a $1.00 per share price and typically do not fluctuate in market value, they generally are not the targets of abusive trading practices. For these reasons, the fund's board of trustees has not adopted policies and procedures with respect to frequent purchases and redemptions of the fund's shares, and the fund does not impose redemption fees or minimum holding periods for its investors. However, the fund's management will seek to prevent an investor from utilizing the fund to facilitate frequent purchases and redemptions of shares in other John Hancock funds that are not money market funds. The John Hancock funds have adopted policies and procedures with respect to excessive trading and potential "market timing" activity for its non-money market funds (as described in the prospectus for the non-money market John Hancock funds), and an account will be prevented from purchasing additional shares or making further exchanges if the fund's management determines that the account has engaged in timing activities in contravention of a non-money market John Hancock fund's policies.

Account Information John Hancock Funds, LLC is required by law to obtain information for verifying an account holder's identity. For example, an individual will be required to supply name, residential address, date of birth and Social Security number. If you do not provide the required information, we may not be able to open your account. If verification is unsuccessful, John Hancock Funds, LLC may close your account, redeem your shares at the next NAV minus any applicable sales charges and take other steps that it deems reasonable.

Certificated shares All money market funds' shares are electronically recorded. Certificated shares are not available.

Sales in advance of purchase payments When you place a request to sell shares for which the purchase money has not yet been collected, the request will be executed in a timely fashion, but the fund will not release the proceeds to you until your purchase payment clears. This may take up to ten business days after the purchase.

DIVIDENDS AND ACCOUNT POLICIES

Account statements In general, you will receive account statements as follows:

- after every transaction (except a dividend reinvestment, automatic investment or systematic withdrawal) that affects your account balance
- after any changes of name or address of the registered owner(s)
- in all other circumstances, every quarter

Every year you should also receive, if applicable, a Form 1099 tax information statement, mailed by January 31.

Dividends The fund generally declares dividends daily and pays them monthly. Most of the fund's dividends are income dividends. Purchases by wire or other federal funds that are accepted before 12:00 P.M. (noon), Eastern Time, will receive the dividend declared that day. Other orders, including those that are not accompanied by federal funds, will begin receiving dividends the following day. Redemption orders wired before 12:00 P.M. (noon), Eastern Time will not receive that day's dividends.

Dividend reinvestments Most investors have their dividends reinvested in additional shares of the same fund and class. If you choose this option or if you do not indicate any choice, your dividends will be reinvested on the dividend record date. Alternatively, you can choose to have a check for your dividends in the amount of $10 or more mailed to you. However, if the check is not deliverable or the dividend amount is less than $10, your proceeds will be reinvested. If five or more of your dividend checks remain uncashed after 180 days, all subsequent dividends will be reinvested.

Taxability of dividends Dividends you receive from the fund, whether reinvested or taken as cash, are generally considered taxable as ordinary income. Some dividends paid in January may be taxable as if they had been paid the previous December.

The Form 1099 that is mailed to you every January details your dividends and their federal tax category, although you should verify your tax liability with your tax professional.

Taxability of transactions Any time you sell or exchange shares, it is considered a taxable event for you. However, as long as a fund maintains a stable share price, you will not have a gain or loss on shares you sell or exchange.

Small accounts (non-retirement only) If you draw down a non-retirement account so that its total value is less than $1,000, you may be asked to purchase more shares within 30 days. If you do not take action, your fund may close out your account and mail you the proceeds. Alternatively, your fund may charge you $20 a year to maintain your account. You will not be charged a CDSC if your account is closed for this reason. Your account will not be closed or charged this fee if its drop in value is due to fund performance or the effects of sales charges.

ADDITIONAL INVESTOR SERVICES

Monthly Automatic Accumulation Program (MAAP)

MAAP lets you set up regular investments from your paycheck or bank account to the John Hancock fund(s) of your choice. You determine the frequency and amount of your investments, and you can terminate your program at any time. To establish:

- Complete the appropriate parts of your account application.
- If you are using MAAP to open an account, make out a check for your first investment amount payable to "John Hancock Signature Services, Inc." in an amount satisfying the applicable minimum initial investment requirements specified in OPENING AN ACCOUNT. Deliver your check and application to your financial representative or Signature Services.

Systematic withdrawal plan This plan may be used for routine bill payments or periodic withdrawals from your account. To establish:

- Make sure you have at least $5,000 worth of shares in your account.
- Make sure you are not planning to invest more money in this account (buying shares during a period when you are also selling shares of the same fund is not advantageous to you because of sales charges, if applicable).
- Specify the payee(s). The payee may be yourself or any other party, and there is no limit to the number of payees you may have, as long as they are all on the same payment schedule.
- Determine the schedule: monthly, quarterly, semiannually, annually or in certain selected months.
- Fill out the relevant part of the account application. To add a systematic withdrawal plan to an existing account, contact your financial representative or Signature Services.
